Is it not plain that the efficacy of the Governor's summons or certificate to certain persons as Senators must be passed and confined to the exercise only of this first constitutional duty merely; that is "to determine who are elected to be Senators?" Persons who are actually elected by the returns, if a legal quorum of the Senate, might perhaps omit this preliminary duty, "to determine who are elected to be Senators" and their acts be valid because they are the actually elected Senators.

But can persons assuming to meet as senators by virtue of a summons from the Governor but who are not actually elected by the returns, legally ask beyond the exercise of this first constitutional duty to canvass the returns by which they are to once ousted as Senators and those actually elected are determined. The Governor's summons does not give the person summoned a prima facie right to act as a senator beyond this first paramount constitutional duty. If a person having a summons as Senator, acts beyond this or without having done this, the validity of his acts must be determined by the fact whether or not the person is actually elected by the returns? And if a body of persons by virtue of a summons from the Governor merely, assuming to be the Senate, and having less than a quorum who are actually elected, and having a certain number, who are not actually elected by the returns, and who act with them by virtue of the Governor's summons only, go on to organize and assume to act as a Senate beyond and without having done, the first and only constitutional duty which they can do by virtue of the Governor's summons, their acts must be illegal and void.

Can certificates from the Governor constitute a Senate? The proposition is monstrous. Whatever is done beyond the canvass of the returns that are laid before the Senate, to determine who are elected to be senators," must be done to be valid by those actually elected by a prima facie inspection of the returns.

The question of contested elections on facts not appearing on the returns, is a subsequent and wholly different matter.

Is there any doubt that if the persons holding certificates from the Governor as senators-elect, elected themselves to this

A WORD IN SEASON.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

Brainless and unscrupulous demagogues, like Pigg, who have nothing to gain, ambitious and angry men, like Joseph L. Smith, who have revenges to gratify, ally-tongued and desperate conspirators, like Eben F. Pillsbury, who have pelf and plunder involved, are combining together and urging the Democrats and Greenbackers to raise the standard of revolt and begin a tragedy of violence and blood. Naturally enough the conservative and quiet element of their party are resistant to see a civil war precipitated in Maine. Men who have farms and homes and a place in society and a stake in life do not wish to join in the wild riot and bloodshed to which Smith, Pigg and Pillsbury urge them. They believe that we still live under a Government of Law and that the Supreme Judicial Court is the tribunal of last resort. They therefore wish to await its decree and then, like good citizens, obey it.

The scheme of those who urge violence is to inaugurate Joseph L. Smith as Governor; have him assume command, arrest General Chamberlain, then "say havoc and let slip the dogs of war." These accomplished removed his office and residence from Bangor to No. 31 State Street (corner of Exeter) Bangor. Office hours from 9 to 5 P. M.

MORE PAPERS FROM LAMSON.

ALL THE REPORTS AND RUMORS.

The Crowd at the Capitol.
[SPECIAL TO WIG AND COURIER.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 15. To-day the crowd in the rotunda of the State House showed a large falling off in numbers as compared with those present yesterday. But the most of those who were there, however believed in making "treason odious." The party of resolute men who came down from Waterville under Col. Heath, in the night Pullman train, finding their services not required in the enforcement of peace and order in the State House, the police being considered amply sufficient, went back a few hours afterward in the return Pullman train.

There has been the usual batch of rumors in circulation to-day, the most ridiculous one being that Gen. Chamberlain had recognized Lamson, the bogus Governor.

The Fusionists Declare They Will Not Submit to the Court's Decision.

All eyes are turned toward the Supreme Court, and its decision is awaited with great anxiety. It is expected to be reached to-morrow. It is the principal topic of conversation among Republicans who all say that whatever the decision may be, they will "cheerfully acquiesce in it." The Fusion revolutionists declare that if it is adverse to them they will not submit to it but will stamp upon it and defy it. They profess indifference to it and say that whatever it may be it will have no influence upon them. They have determined upon a policy which they intend to carry out even if it results in anarchy and bloodshed.

The Bogus House

received enough in numbers to make a quorum of a legal House to-day by seating Merritt W. Stiles in the Westbrook contested case. Their Committee on Elections reported that Stiles was elected by a plurality of votes!

How Could He Do It?

The Fusion revolutionists are demanding Lamson to remove General Chamberlain but Lamson refuses.

Unceasing Business:

The bogus House Committee on Elections gave a hearing, exparte of course, in the Vassalboro' and Embden district contested election case this afternoon. It is reported that they voted to count in the contestants.

The First Female Visitor.

A very modest and pretty appearing lady appeared in the State House this morning leaning on the protective arm of her chaperon, probably her husband. The couple were evidently strangers. We refer to this circumstance because it is the first instance where one of the gentler sex has appeared in the State House since the commencement of the siege. The couple received passes and gratified their curiosity in sight-seeing to their infinite satisfaction.

General Plaisted

Lamson, the bogus Governor, appointed Gen. H. M. Plaisted, of Bangor, his chief of staff, but he declined to accept. There is a strong pressure being brought to bear on him and he may possibly consent to yield.

Lamson Sends a Paper to the Court.

The Fusion Advisory Committee drafted a paper to be presented to the Supreme Court, protesting against, taking any cognizance of the questions submitted to them by the Republican Legislature. This paper contained a brief statement of facts and argued that the Republican Legislature as organized had no constitutional power to submit such questions. Jennings, of Bangor, was appointed messenger to convey the paper to the Court, and left this morning in the early Pullman train.

The Pillsbury-Chase Break.

The Fusionists are talking about throwing Pillsbury overboard. Already Solon Chase has broken with him, and it looks as if his followers would imitate his example.

The Bogus House.
[To Associated Press.]

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 15. "The Senate" met at 10 and took a recess until 3, without transacting any business. In "the House" the "Committee on Elections" reported giving the seat of Dunnells of Westbrook, Republican, to Merritt W. Styles, Democrat. The report was carried without opposition and Mr. Styles was qualified and took his seat. Notice was given that a hearing would be had this afternoon in the Vassalboro and Embden contested cases. A recess was then taken until half-past four this afternoon. Notice was given of a Fusion caucus to be held this evening.

Rumors and Reports.

Attorney General McLellan denies the report that he has been preparing a warrant for the arrest of Chamberlain.

A rumor was rife in the State House this morning that Chamberlain had recognized Lamson as Governor. A call at headquarters showed the rumor to be false in every particular.

General Chamberlain refuses to comply with Lamson's request to diminish the number of police at the State House. If any change is made it will be to strengthen the force.

Another Lamson Order.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 15. The following order was issued this afternoon:

AUGUSTA, Jan. 15, 1880.

Wm. H. Libby, Sheriff Kennebec Co.:

Dear Sir: The services of yourself and police are required no longer to protect public buildings. You will please dismiss them at once. Respectfully,

(Signed) JAMES D. LAMSON,
Acting Governor.

Sheriff Libby does not recognize Mr. Lamson as Governor and declines to obey the order. He has ordered his deputies on duty to-night.

The Capitol Police Force.

Following is a communication from Mayor Nash concerning the police force:

To Major-Gen. Chamberlain:

Sir: I have the honor to state that I will keep at the Capitol only such police force as in my judgment the events from day to day seem to render necessary for the preservation of the peace and protection of public property. In no case is such force to annoy any person, or interfere with any of his rights and privileges. After this day admission to the public buildings will be confined to members of the Legislature and to those claiming seats therein and to State officers and employes and such other persons as you may direct.

Very respectfully, your obt. servant,
(Signed) CHAS. E. NASH, Mayor.

Dickey's Report on Elections.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 15. In "the Senate" this afternoon the remonstrance of Isaac F. Quimby was presented against Joseph A. Locke holding a seat at the board as Senator from Cumberland and claiming Locke's seat. Referred to a Committee on Senatorial Votes.

In "the House" Mr. Dickey, from the Committee on Elections, stated that the committee was ready to report, but for prudential reasons the report would be delayed until to-morrow.

An Address to the People by General Chamberlain.

This evening General Chamberlain issued the following address to the people of the State.

To the People of Maine:

AUGUSTA, Jan. 15, 1880.

Believing that I ought to do everything to allay the agitation in the minds of the citizens of this State, I hereby give assurance that up to this moment calm counsels have prevailed and that I see no present occasion for public alarm. I regret that messages should be sent from any quarter which bring crowds of men of both political parties into this city.

This is a great embarrassment in preserving the peace and in reaching a proper solution of the difficulties before us. What ever threats are made I have no fears for my personal safety. If our people will feel confidence that the dispositions made for their protection are sufficient, although not obtruded upon the public sight, and would all keep cool counsel patience, so that political and legal questions could be calmly considered, our trouble could soon be in a way for settlement.

My attitude towards the Hon. Mr. Lamson as a matter of duty has been made known in my reply to his inquiry addressed to me on the 12th day of January. At the same time I regard him as in a position to contribute in a high degree to the efforts to save us from anarchy and ruin, and inasmuch as I can do lawful and peaceful solution of the matters in issue.

(Signed) JOSHUA L. CHAMBERLAIN.

False Reports.

The reports that have been sent out from here to-day stating that General Chamberlain has recognized Mr. Lamson as acting Governor and has reduced the force at the State House at his request are false.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS--Second Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.

Messrs. McPherson and Baldwin presented petitions of women asking the right of suffrage.

Luke Pryor, appointed temporary successor to Houston, of Alabama, deceased, was sworn in taking the modified oath.

The bill to relieve the U. S. Treasurer from responsibility for the amounts now charged against him which was deposited with the several States, went over on expiration of the morning hour and Mr. Morrill called up his resolution for refunding the public debt at a less rate of interest than 6 per cent and made a long speech in support thereof.

House.

The bill requiring one-half of the reserve of National banks to be kept in gold and silver coin was taken up and Mr. Price spoke in support of the bill.

The morning hour expired, the bill went over without action and the House went into Committee of the Whole on report of the Committee on Rules.

THE INDIANS.

The Mexicans Fighting Them.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15. A Denver special says that Major Morrow came upon Victoria at noon of the 12th. The Indians had fortified themselves behind rocks, etc., and held out against the soldiers until sunset, when they retreated, leaving seven dead Indians on the field. Sergeant Grass was killed and two soldiers wounded.

Gen. Rich ordered reinforcements to-morrow. The Mexican force which pursued the Indians to the State line returned to Chihuahua and Sonora, but Gen. Carrasco with 150 Mexican troops has gone to El Paso to await orders.

A bill has passed the New Mexico Legislature appropriating a hundred thousand dollars for the expense of fighting the Indians. A pack and train of seventy-eight mules which were seen a week ago are missing, and it is thought that the Indians captured it.

HUNGARY.

A Bad Riot.

PESTH, Jan. 15. There were several disturbances here Tuesday and Wednesday in consequence of a duel between Baron Mailathny of the Casino Club and Herr Verhovay member of Parliament and editor, in which the latter was fatally wounded and further trouble is feared. Verhovay is very distasteful to the aristocracy but popular with the masses. Last night a great crowd of students and workmen filled the streets in the neighborhood of the Casino Club uttering hostile cries and then finally stoned the windows of the club house. The police were repeatedly repulsed by rioters, and finally two battalions of infantry charged them with fixed bayonets. Many persons were hurt by stones, sticks and bayonets. About 30 rioters were arrested.

LONDON, Jan. 15. A despatch from Pesth says the rioting was renewed last night at a late hour and two persons shot, but whether by the military or rioters could not be ascertained. At midnight shots were fired at soldiers from behind some wagons in the street. The perpetrators escaped. This looks like a barricade.

KENTUCKY.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR. There was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Dr. Maxfield, on Brondway, Wednesday evening. The festivities of the evening consisted of dancing various figures of the German as well as plain dances, and the occasion was one of great enjoyment. During the evening cake and coffee were served in abundance and it was a late hour when the merry party started for home.

CHANGE OF TIME. On the 26th of this month the running time of passenger trains on the Maine Central Railroad is to be changed, on account of more time being required between Bangor and Portland, during the months of February and March. The time for leaving Bangor in the morning will be seven o'clock and the evening quarter before eight. This change will continue about two months, and then they will go back to the present running time.

THE JAMESON GUARDS. The appearance of some members of this favorite company on the street in uniform yesterday, gave rise to various rumors, in view of the prevalent excitement over the situation at Augusta. Upon inquiry it was learned that no movement had been made except the stationing of a guard at the Armory by Capt. J. M. Davis, who returned from Bar Hill Wednesday and is now in command of the company ready to respond to the call of duty if required.

BANKS. We find the following list in one of our exchanges giving the banks in Maine whose charters expire Feb. 23, 1883, they having been organized under the National Bank act of Feb. 25, 1863: First National Bank, Augusta; Freeman's National Bank, Augusta; First National Bank, Bangor; Second National Bank, Bangor; First National Bank, Bath; First National Bank, Brunswick; First National Bank, Damariscotta; First National Bank, Lewiston; First National Bank, Eastport; First National Bank, Skowhegan; Second National Bank, Skowhegan.

Stetson, Secretary. A dividend of ten per cent., payable on demand, was declared.

KATAHDIN IRON WORKS. A Mile correspondent of the Observer writes as follows: I venture to "guess" that there is not another so busy a place of its size in the State as Katahdin Iron Works is at present. I understand there are over four hundred men on the township engaged in lumbering, chopping and hauling wood, together with the usual force at the Works. Contractors are busy cutting wood which is being hauled to the yard at the rate of 250 cords a day. The furnace has been acting badly for a number of days, owing to some difficulty with the ore which chilled at the bottom, making it necessary to draw off every hour or two instead of six hours, as usual. The ore is very rich, being fifty per cent. iron, and at the present price of iron is a paying property. One can but wonder when looking over the different departments, at the business capacity of the men who moved all this great enterprise, and, who issues notice of the eighteenth dividend of 5¼ per cent. Mr. Dwight certainly deserves success.

MAINE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE. A branch meeting of the Board of Agriculture will be held at Turner Center, Tuesday, Jan. 27th, 1880. In the forenoon at 10 o'clock, a discussion on the breeding and care of domestic animals will be opened by a member of the Board, followed by Mr. C. H. Cobb, of Poland and others. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock Tillage vs. Manure will be discussed by Prof. W. H. Jordan of the Agricultural College, followed by Mr. Z. A. Gilbert of East Turner and others. In the evening at 7 o'clock there will be an address by some one to be announced at the meeting.

A COLD HALL. We learn from some of our citizens who attended the matinee performance Wednesday afternoon, that Norombega was so cold that it was quite impossible to enjoy the entertainment, and many were very much alarmed for fear that their children would contract severe colds. In the evening the temperature was certainly very low and the hall was not a suitable place for any one to sit quietly for two or three hours. This state of affairs seems wholly inexcusable and we trust that the proper persons will attend to the matter at once and see that the hall is properly heated at the next entertainment. The public are getting indignant, as this thing has occurred several times this winter.

BUSINESS NOTES. Capt. Arthur Berry has been making some quite extensive improvements in his Dresden ice houses. He has built a new engine room 24x28, twelve feet posted, set a new 40-horse power Lotter on a solid brick foundation, added a new double engine, 8x12 cylinder, placed on a brick and stone foundation, set a new steam pump to supply water from the river, and made many other improvements about the buildings. He now has about as convenient and commodious houses as can be found on the Kennebec, with a fine field of ice from eight to 12 inches thick in front of them, and will soon commence to move it up the runs.

—New York parties are now building a lobster smack of 45 tons to carry on the lobster trade. The smack will be ready by the first of April. Mr. A. Small of Harpswell has been appointed agent for that locality.

THE BAND CONCERT. Last evening Norombega Hall was packed full on the occasion of the 5th concert under the auspices of the Bangor Band. During the first of the evening a choice musical programme was presented by the Band and Andrews' orchestra, after which the presents were distributed. As each person entered the hall they exchanged their tickets for envelopes, some of which contained numbers and others blanks. When the presents were distributed one man drew out a number and another a slip of paper containing the name of some of the articles to be given away, and the person in the audience holding that number received the article. Mr. George Knights drew the carpet. This evening the black walnut chamber set will be given away. The proceeds of these concerts are to be used towards defraying the expense of new uniforms, and as the object is a good one we hope the hall will be crowded again this evening. They certainly need the uniforms and the organization is one that our citizens should be proud of and willing to show their appreciation of its merits.

VENNOR FINDS THE WEATHER FRACTIOUS. Mr. Vennor sends to the Montreal papers the following: "The thermometer at 9 P. M., Sunday morning 4° above zero and at 9 P. M., the mercury was 1° above freezing point, viz., 33°. Such a sudden rise within a comparatively few hours is certainly very remarkable. During the same space of time the barometer fell, (reading roughly) from 30°. 4) to 30° .80, but this fall was not attended by either snow or rain during the hours mentioned. The weather outline between 9 A. M., on the 10th and 9 P. M., on the 11th, as mapped, presents the form of an acute or narrow V, one side of which represents a dip of about 27° (2°° to 0°) and the other a rise 33°. Such ups and downs have characterized January up to the present date, and as this present feature is likely to continue, we may look for very irregular weather, with sudden and not always agreeable changes up to the close of the month. In February I shall not be surprised should the mercury, from a zero standpoint, take a 3.° plunge in a most uncomfortable direction, but this I do not anticipate during the remainder of the present month."

A GREETING TO BANGOR.

From a Former Resident.

FALL RIVER, January 1880.

Dear Wig and Courier:

A welcome New Year's copy of your veritable self has just come before the eyes of one to whom you was most familiar twenty years ago. Like the Yankee boy's knife, though with new handle and blade, yet how exactly the same. The same "image and superscription," the same or enlarged proportions, and welcome contents. Yes, we seem walking with you around to the nice shopping place, down to the Katahdin, and Maine Central. Ah! here is honest Job Collett, still industriously sharpening the files, and our old friend Captain Bickford, (his very name having almost the odor of the rich bivalves), still cheerfully singing of his fresh treasures from the sea and mountain streams:

"Clams, lobsters, oysters, it his line, Fresh, cod, cel, salmon—very fine."

true to his old motto—"Dum vivimus vivamus." Albeit among business and professional announcements, how many an honored name must be missed. But a certain nondescript accidental, usurper at Augusta, having touched the honor of the Queen Eastern city, how quickly flashes out the old loyal spirit. As your Christmas episode brought to remembrance the platform of Norombega, and our calm yet accurate and reliable war Mayor, Stetson; did we not snuff the battle, and wish to be on that old camp ground again? For when a political Doctor thought he could make a despotic edict act like soothing syrup for Bangor, with its clergymen to hum the lullaby, we just wished to be there, to see how beautifully Bangoreans would not go to sleep, "nothing doubting."

Despite the financial misfortunes, even of Fall River, honest men feel strong in a Commonwealth of law which can speedily take offenders to State Prison. And when any intimate that tyranny is to rule Maine, we say to them, when the Penobscot changes its course and flows back, toward Katahdin, then possibly the citizens of the Pine Tree State will quietly submit to be disfranchised.

"I DON'T WANT A PLASTER" said a sick man to a druggist, "can't you give me something to cure me?" His symptoms were a lame back and disordered urine, and were a sure indication of kidney disease. GUILTY OF WRONG. Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion so use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune. d&w2w jan15
